PALESTINE: THE NEW NAZIS

A Third Way Beyond Capitalism and Communism

PUBLISHED FORTNIGHTLY HELP BUILD THE PAPER – PAY THE £1 SOLIDARITY PRICE.

THATCHER'S SECRET PLAN:

SELL OFF THE N.H.S.

TOP RIGHT-WING Tories are planning to sell off Britain's National Health Service. They reject the NF idea that a nation is a large family which has a duty to look after those of its people who cannot look after themselves. As with everything else, they are only interested in one thing – making a quick profit.

Thatcher's pre-Christmas "generosity" in making a little extra cash available to our hospitals should fool nobody. It was just a public relations gesture designed to buy time while the Tories work out detailed plans for doing away with the NHS altogether.

The crisis in the Health Service is the result of this government's failure to provide the funds needed to provide increasingly expensive medical care to a steadily ageing population. What little is left over from the paltry increases has been gobbled up by a top heavy management structure and in building giant new hospitals to replace many smaller, more humane and more effective community hospitals. These have been the main victims of the Thatcherite axe.

Opinion polls show that public worries over the fate of the Health Service are higher than ever. It was this issue which could have lost the Tories the last election. So why are they still risking public rejection by choking the NHS?

The truth is that the Tories have a far more drastic aim than merely encouraging efficiency. They want to scrap the NHS and go over to an American style insurance system. In the States, everyone has to pay for health insurance directly. Those who are too poor to do so just have to go without. And if you get run over in the street, no-one will help you because you might not be insured and they might end up having to pay for your treatment themselves.

It is a revolting system which could only have taken root in a land where money is everything and individuals have no roots in the community. But as the Tories want to turn Britain into a mini America, it was inevitable that they would adopt this idea as well.

The Institute of Economic Affairs in particular has been encouraging Mrs Thatcher to make the change. This right-wing think tank is closely linked to City merchant banks and has considerable influence with the government. Just before Christmas its chairman, Lord Harris, claimed that if Britian had allowed "market forces" to dictate health care, there would now be no problem at all.

But as the American experience shows, private health care schemes only benefit the rich. They show no interest at all in the elderly, the chronically sick, mentally ill or handicapped. Quite simply, the weak are left to rot.

And although they save the State money, they are actually much more expensive to run, because when treatment is done for profit, doctors and surgeons have a massive incentive to encourage patients to have unneccesary treatment. This would place a massive burden on our economy.

All this means that proposals for such a system will be extremely unpopular. The Tories know this, but are determined to go ahead with it anyway. So they are deliberately starving the NHS of funds in order to create such a shambles that the public are willing to accept any alternative which might be able to sort out the mess. That is the reason for the waiting lists. That is the reason little children are left to die.

PROFIT FROM SICKNESS

And while the old system collapses, the Tories are quietly preparing for the changeover. The destruction of small hospitals is a central part of their cynical strategy. The giant companies, to whom they aim to sell the right to profit from sickness, will not be interested in small scale operations. Everything must be big.

It is no accident that the restructuring of the NHS management and administration has been carried out under the beady eye of J. Sainsbury, from the supermarket chain. Who better to create a system which will appeal to the City and the multi-nationals?

The NHS is far from perfect. Changes are needed and new ways to help meet an ever-rising health bill must be found. But this disgusting plan is not the right way. It must be fought tooth and nail.

The fact that the Tories are using such underhand methods to implement it shows that they are worried about the public reaction to their scheme. So if enough people know what is going on and work to prevent it, they will have to back off. It's up to all of us. But don't say you weren't warned!

MAD START TO THE YEAR

SWAMPED

THE LAST working day of 1987 saw 100,000 immigrants apply to become British citizens. Outside the Home Office immigration H.Q. in Croydon the queue, mainly of Africans and Asians, was four deep and stretched for 200 yards. Officials were also swamped in cities such as Manchester and Birmingham.

The reason for the rush? The new "tough" British Nationality Act which came into force on January 1st. This puts up the cost of citizenship in our poor country from £60 to £170. And immigrants paying the new fee will also have to display a basic knowledge of English and have already lived here for five years when they apply. Isn't that reassuring?

ROTTEN SYSTEM

THE STOCK EXCHANGE spent the first part of January trying to play down the scandal of the cheating dealers who created a fake share price boom on Christmas Eve in a fiddle which nearly netted them £200,000.

The City parasites falsely marked up share prices to the tune of £4 Billion after placing huge bets on the level share prices would reach at the close of dealing. They raised the FT index 20 points, encouraging some innocent small investors to think that the stock market crisis was over and to buy shares which then crashed in value.

As one dealer explained: "The rally was a ploy by some characters who wanted to get the index over 1800 because they had a bet on it."

It is absurd that the whim of a few Stock Exchange crooks can alter the 'value' of British industry by billions of pounds in a few hours. But it is no surprise.

After all, the whole City of London system is little more than a "respectable" gambling casino. No wonder that investment in manufacturing industry and high technology research is lower in Britain than in any of our major competitors abroad.

WHAT ACCIDENT?

JANUARY SAW the publication of a supressed report on the Windscale nuclear reactor fire in Cumbria in 1957. The truth about the accident was concealed for 30 years on the orders of then Tory Prime Minister, Harold Macmillan. The incident was in fact one of the worst nuclear accidents in the world, spreading deadly radiation across England, Wales and northern Europe.

The fall-out was much worse than that from the notorious meltdown at America's Three Mile Island. Even the tame government sponsored National Radiological Protection Board estimates that some 33 people, many of them children, have died agonizing deaths from cancer as a result.

Macmillan ordered the cover-up to protect the nuclear industry. The burning pile was buried in concrete.

Cleaning up work is due to start this year. It will cost millions of pounds and take ten years. And if the fire breaks out again when exposed to air, it could easily create another Chernobyl.

In spite of the danger and the cover-up scandal, Thatcher is still determined to expand Britain's accident prone nuclear power programme. As she thinks it's so safe, why not put the next reactor in the cellar at the Houses of Parliament?

Youth reject the System

THE Economic and Social Research Council has just spent half a million pounds to find out what NF News could have told them for the price of a stamp: that a very large number of young people in Britain support the National Front.

The report which revealed this, What Next? is a summary of six research projects by the Council over the last nine years. It found that the overwhelming majority of young people are totally disillusioned with the old political parties, and have no interest in the workings of their parliament or the economic system which they serve.

The only political movement whose policies were well known was the National Front, with its constant demand for repatriation of coloured immigrants. Support for the Front among a complete cross section of West Midlands teenagers rose from seven to 14% between 1979 and 1982. And taking into account the larger number still who gave the NF second preference after one of the old parties, a massive one third of those questioned expressed support for the National Front.

More recent studies have found no evidence of a decline in this support. Indeed, in the areas worst hit by unemployment, the Council believes that it is still increasing. And another study, of youngsters in the north east, warned of the need for authoritarian repression to contain resentment by an alienated lost generation.

"Feeling that something must be done in the face of economic decline, they were drawn to the conclusion that the repatriation of non-white immigrants was the only possible policy," says the report.

The researchers are so worried about their findings that they call for the introduction of "political studies" into the school curriculum, which would "tackle racism" and aim to teach children to respect parliament and to support one of the 'respectable' old parties which have brought this country to her knees.

NEWS IN BRIEF

ACCORDING TO the magazine Public Service Action, private contractors brought in to perform local authority and health authority services have either been sacked or have abandoned their contracts in at least 46 different cases, thus highlighting "the incompetence and profiteering motives of contractors."

DESPITE having passed legislation back in 1986 on the control of pesticides, the government has refused to appoint staff to enforce the law. Environmentalists, farm workers and the Institute of Professional Civil Servants all maintain that this shows that the Tories' law to limit the widespread damage to Man and Nature by pesticides is a "paper tiger."

DANGER–RADIATION!

ADULTS living in coastal towns in the north west near to the Sellafield nuclear reprocessing plant are three times more likely to develop leukaemia than in the rest of the country.

Researchers from Lancaster University have just completed a 12 month study which discovered a particularly high incidence of this form of cancer in Lancaster, Blackpool, Morecombe, Fleetwood and Lytham St. Anne's. All these towns are on or near what has long been recognized to be "the most radioactive sea in the world."

WORLD AFFAIRS

Zionism = Nazism

THE WEEKS of protests by Palestinians against the Israeli occupation of their land have led to brutal repression by the army of the Zionist state.

Many children have been among the victims of soldiers firing live ammunition into crowds where entire villages have been gassed from helicopters.

The security police have admitted that the torture of prisoners is "routine." And Israeli military courts are now expelling young Palestinians as quickly as they can.

The media have covered the issue, but have managed to ignore one relevant fact. The land now wrongly called 'Israel' belongs to the Palestinians. It was taken from them by force and mass murder between 1948 and 1967. The Palestinians are being kicked out of their own country by immigrants.

NIGHT after night, the police and army raid the ghettoes. Young men are arrested. Prisoners are tortured. Political activists are expelled from their own country. Women and children are beaten up. Places of worship are attacked and desecrated. Shops are smashed open. Protesters are shot dead. The oppressors' tanks roll through narrow streets crushing all opposition.

Where are we? The Jewish areas of Poland under Nazi occupation in 1944? No. The Palestinian areas of a Palestine under occupation by the Zionist Terror State of Israel in 1988.

But the similarity should come as no surprise. For Zionism, with its belief in a Jewish master race and the value of violence, is a mirror image of the Nazism which gave it such a boost. Back in the last war, Zionist fanatics actually worked with the Nazi authorities to liquidate decent Jews who opposed their lunatic scheme to steal another people's country. Nearly 50 years later, their actions still mark them out as the political and moral lepers of the civilized world.

More Pacific Resistance

WHILE NATIVE Fijians are still struggling to maintain their rights as a minority in their own land, the people of another Pacific island are facing a similar problem. But whereas the Fijians are being outnumbered by Indian immigrants, the native Kanaks of New Caledonia are being displaced by White settlers from France.

Successive French governments have sought to turn the remote territory into part of France by shipping in so many settlers that the Kanaks now make up only 40% of the 150,000 residents. Naturally, the Kanaks object to having their country stolen from them in this way. And they have been further angered by the acquittal of the self-confessed killers of 10 Kanaks in a 1984 ambush by settlers.

WAVE OF REPRESSION

The French authorities have responded to this with a wave of repression aimed at silencing native anti-immigration voices until they are so outnumbered that there is nothing they could do to recover their own land. The deputy leader of the main Kanak movement has been charged with incitement to murder, after he said that the unjust acquittal showed that it was time "to set up a Kanak peoples' resistance against the occupying forces." He is being held in jail until his trial.

The director of the separatist radio station which reported his speech has also been charged with inciting violence, and the movement's leader, Mr Jean-Marie Tjibaou is facing similar charges for calling on indigenous Kanaks to defend themselves against violence by pro-French settlers.

WORLD OF DIFFERENCE

There is a world of difference between this situation and the one, for instance, in the Falkland Islands. The Falklands were totally unpopulated until British settlers arrived, and no other peoples have ever lived there. In New Caledonia, by complete contrast, a native people who have lived in their land since prehistoric times, are being ousted by recent immigrants brought in for the economic and military benefit of a foreign power.

So even though the immigrants in this case are White, the National Front, as a movement of principled racialism, supports the right of the native, coloured, Kanaks to protect their own cultural and racial identity, and to re-establish their ownership and control over every last inch of their homeland.

Trouble in Brazil

MORE THAN 130 miners were shot and killed by military police in Brazil it was revealed in January. The massacre took place during labour protests at the biggest open-cast gold mine in the world, in the remote north of the country.

400 military police fired tear gas and live rounds at a demonstration of 3,000 unarmed miners and their families blocking a railway bridge. Eye witness accounts quoted in an official report on the murders include the cold-blooded execution of a pregnant woman, whose body was then hurled into the river 250 feet below.

The police have denied the reports, claiming that only three bodies have been found. Yet other reliable witnesses talk of hundreds of corpses being driven away in police lorries. And a man who revealed that he had seen many more bodies floating down river was attacked and beaten to death by a group of unknown men before he could give full details.

More than 40% of Brazil's Gross National Product goes directly in interest payments to the international banks. Their pressure on the government there to continue to pay through the nose for fraudulent loans is directly responsible for the attacks on ordinary working people now being carried out by the Brazilian state.

Quite simply, the familiar High Street banks might try to cultivate a friendly image in Britain. But in South America their hands are covered in the blood of murdered miners and peasants, and of their starving children.

MORE THAN a quarter of the 220,000 jungle Indians of Brazil will lose their rights to their ancestral lands under a new constitution to be adopted in March. This will give the army control of all areas within 150 kilometres of the frontier, which cuts through the lands of 83 different Indian tribes.

The military want to develop the border areas economically in the interests of "national security." They aim to promote mining operations and capitalist agriculture, populating the regions with settlers of European descent.

The impact on what survives of Brazil's fragile rain forests will be immense. Yet many scientists fear that the destruction of the trees which produce the bulk of the world's oxygen will be an environmental disaster for the whole world.

DESTROYING NATIONS

But even before that, the proposed changes will destroy forever many distinct nations of people whose culture and way of life has developed over centuries to be in perfect tune with the natural world.

As National Revolutionaries, NF members respect the rights of all peoples to preserve their ethnic and cultural identities. And this includes so-called "primitive" peoples threatened by White settlers and Western capitalist exploitation. Sadly, there is little we can do except offer sympathy in this case, although units could watch out for local timber firms which import wood from Brazil and pressure them to find alternative supplies.

DISCLAIMER

THE NATIONAL DIRECTORATE wishes to make it clear that The Flag and Vanguard are not National Front publications. They do not reflect NF policy or strategy and do not speak for the National Front.

They are produced by a small clique of reactionaries, crooks and drunks expelled from the movement last year. Officials are reminded that both publications and their editors are proscribed. Members of the public are warned that the National Front cannot be held responsible for money lost on subscriptions to Flag and Vanguard should they cease publication.

TECHNOLOGY

STUNNING! That's the only word to describe the response of NF cadres, Supporters and FOM's at the Movement's January Organizing Conference to the latest push in the NF's vital Technology Fund. We announced in our last issue that funds in hand for the next wave of modernization now totalled £2,256.50, but that in order to move to a full Desk Top Publishing system, the NF urgently needed to raise a further £4,750.

The meeting on January 9th made a huge leap towards this ambitious but crucial target by raising a magnificent £1,876.25 in a 'Dutch Auction' style collection.

Representatives of the Hackney NFN Supporters' unit started the ball rolling with a generous donation of £100. This was matched personally by the official making the collection and from then on the whole thing snowballed. Personal donations from members of the NF's Directorate alone totalled £370. Many unemployed members gave more than a week's Giro money.

Many thanks are due to:

Blackpool Unit – £80
Waltham Forest – £100
Gary – Hackney – £100

Miss J.T. – Sheffield – £5
J.H. – Blackpool – £5
B.C. – Newcastle – £5
D. McN – £20
G.L. – Central London – £50.

Additional donations of pound coins and loose change brought the final total to £1876.25. Once again, many thanks to all concerned.

Other donations since the last issue were gratefully received from:

P.D. – Kingston – £10
G.K. – Gosport – (another) £25
P.M. – Leicester – £2

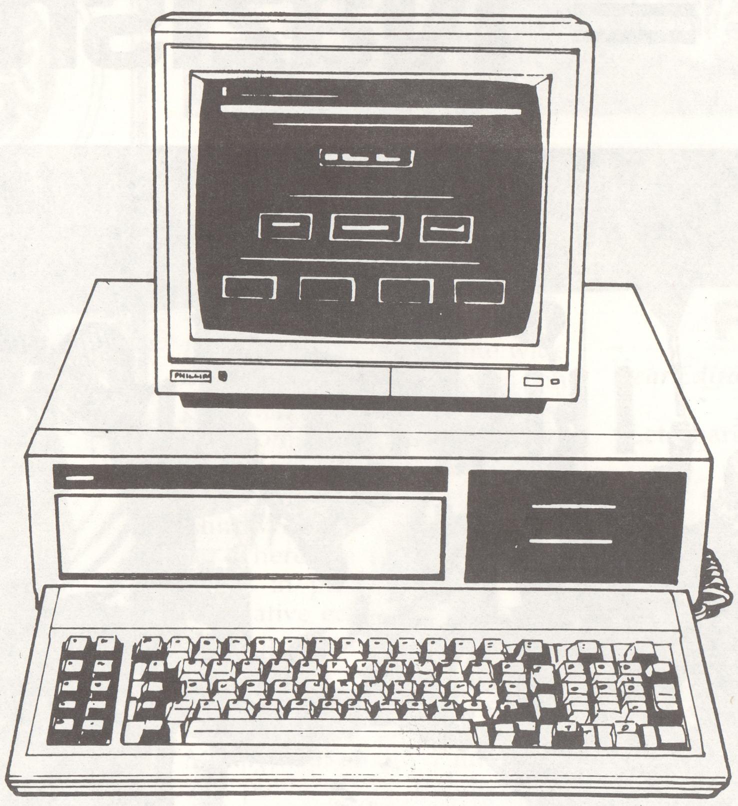
This means that the total raised since the New Year is already £1,913.25. Which in turn gives the National Front £4,169.75 in the bank towards our urgent target of £7,000. This is on top of the £3,186 raised earlier in 1987 and used to purchase the array of equipment detailed in our previous issue.

But although this is a remarkable achievement, it's no time to rest on our laurels. Now, more than ever, is the moment for another big push. We've only got another £2,830.25 to go to beat the total £10,000 Technology Fund target. And that will give the National Front a publicity machine more sophisticated than anything in all of Fleet Street just five years ago – and not so far behind the likes of our opponents like Murdoch and Maxwell today.

This will make our whole operation more efficient and flexible. It will make NF News even more topical and effective. And it will give our volunteer staff more time to work on other important projects essential to the future progress of the Movement.

So NFN urges all the activists who went paper selling so that other colleagues could attend the meeting to match their donations. We urge the thousands of readers who are not in a position to be active to show their appreciation for the NF's militants by backing them financially. And we ask everyone who made a donation to this important Fund last year to dig into their pockets once again. We know it's asking a lot, but we all know there's a lot at stake.

Let's not beat about the bush. A powerful and modern publicity machine using Tommorrow's Technology is the key to building the Movement of the Future. And the key to building such a machine is money. What can you do to help?



I am pleased with the rapid progress of the Technology Fund. I want to help NF News and the National Front to buy the latest equipment as quickly as possible. So I am pleased to enclose the sum of .... I do/do not want this acknowledged in the usual way in a future issue.

This is part of a series of articles researched and written by the Security Department of the National Front, detailing the history and purpose of Searchlight magazine.

Any additional information which readers may be able to supply will be gratefully received. Sources are always treated in the strictest confidence.

EXPOSING THE HATEMONGERS PART

Gerry Gable – The mask slips

The story so far: – low life East End Zionist Gerry Gable, nominal publisher of Searchlight magazine, had been getting away with attacks on Nationalists for years. But now he finds that, in the words of the old song, "things ain't what they used to be." The new breed of Nationalists isn't tame like the old one and NF News is shining the searchlight back on Gerry and his gang. Now read on….

"HISTORICAL REVISIONISM" is something we would usually expect Gerry Gable to condemn. But when it comes to denials, excuses and 'justifications' which seek to rehabilitate his somewhat battered image, Gerry is all for it!

An article published in the Jewish Chronicle on October 23rd, 1987, was based on interviews with Gable. In it, an attempt is made to answer obliquely criticism voiced in this NF News series. NFN has exposed Gable in several ways. Most notably we have: reported that Gable has a conviction for breaking into the home of historian David Irving with his violent criminal associate Manny Carpel; drawn attention to his manipulation by intelligence services; pointed out his long-term association (together with his colleagues) with the Communist Party of Great Britain, and noted his support for violence against Nationalists.

So how does Gable attempt to answer these charges?

BREAKING AND ENTERING: Gable claims now that he is "fiercely proud of his conviction" for breaking into the home of historian David Irving.

DUPE AND FINK: The article states that his stories are "gleaned from a wide range of contacts (including people in the secret services)." i.e. stories are fed to his rag by MI5 and Special Branch (not known for impartiality and reliability).

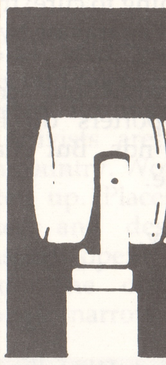
COMMUNIST PARTY MEMBERSHIP: At 15 years old he left school and started as a trainee journalist on the Communist Daily Worker. After a year he left for what became a career as a Communist Party trade union organizer.

In 1962, after around ten years unbroken CP membership, including during the period covering the brutal crushing of the Hungarian workers' and students' uprising in 1956, Gable claims to have left the CP to "concentrate on anti-fascist work and because the party had begun to adopt an anti-Israel line."

He avoided any mention of the many continuing close links with the Communist Party which crop up in any study of the Searchlight operation.

SUPPORT FOR VIOLENCE: Gable adheres to the "East End Socialist and Communist tradition of raising hell and, when necessary, fighting on the streets" according to the report. Surprisingly, Gable is said to have "acquired a reputation for being able to look after himself." Gable is fifty and retired from a job at London Weekend TV for "health reasons."

Gable's support for violence, as opposed to actually doing the dirty work himself is not, however, in question. As far back as 1976, Searchlight magazine was condemned for inciting hatred and violence by Birmingham stipendary magistrate, Mr John Milward.



Put Up or Shut Up

YET ANOTHER book of anti-Nationalist lies is about to appear. Called The Other Face of Terror, it is written by Ray Hill, the former second in command of the tiny reactionary BNP who then sold his story to the Zionist rag Searchlight. The lurid fantasies of the loud-mouthed semi-literate Hill are given some coherence by his co-author Andrew Bell, a former Time Out hack.

The book is not due for publication until February 4th, but having obtained a copy, NF News is happy to break the embargo on it and refute a few of the main lies about the NF.

The first thing to bear in mind is that Hill is a paid grass. And like most grasses, he's happy to make up whatever story will bring the biggest financial rewards. Few of his tales affect the NF directly, though he does make several serious accusations.

NO EVIDENCE

Principally, he claims that NF members have gone on para-military training camps run by ex-members of the SAS. But he gives no names, nor indeed details of any other sort. This is because this is a lie. No such activities have ever taken place. If Hill has information to the contrary, he must take it to the police, who would no doubt be happy to prosecute over such a serious breach of the Public Order Act. But, of course, he has no such evidence because such camps are figments of his booze-sodden imagination.

Hill reserves special bile for NF Directorate member Derek Holland, accusing him of calling for "chaos in the streets" at a meeting in Leicester which Hill attended not long after returning from South Africa. Hill admits to launching an unprovoked physical attack on Mr Holland, but fails to give the real reason. This was that the young NF loyalist had questioned his efforts to provoke trouble in the unit, and had drawn attention to his conviction in South Africa for fraud, after he ripped off several patriotic groups for thousands of pounds.

The NF's lawyers are looking into the possibility of legal action against this convicted thief and thug. And legal pressures against its distributors are also being considered. But whatever happens, we make this simple challenge to Hill and his capitalist publishers: If you have any evidence of NF members being involved in illegal activities, 'terrorist preparations' or anything similar, take it to the police and prosecute. But if you can't back up your lies with any facts, go to hell. To put it simply – Put Up or Shut Up!

MORE ROYAL BETRAYAL

After the advance promise that the Queen's Christmas Speech would contain an attack on IRA terrorism as a result of the Enniskillen Massacre, many naive patriots, especially Ulster loyalists, were no doubt hoping that at last the monarchy would fulfill its duty to stand up for its own subjects. Perhaps we might even hear a royal message of support for the loyalists' right to be considered British, and a condemnation of the Westminster treason which has handed over British subjects to creeping foreign dictatorship.

More realistic NF activists, used by now to the Monarchy's wholehearted support for mass immigration and fanatical opposition to Nationalism among the British peoples, had no such expectations.

But few of us were expecting to hear such an outrageous message of betrayal, nor cynical manipulation of public sympathy for the victims of Enniskillen, from the ageing head of the absurd "British Commonwealth."

IRA MURDERERS

Did she put the blame for the tragedy where it belongs – on the meddling of successive Westminster governments, or on the mixture of Dublin imperialism and Marxist ideology which motivates the IRA murderers? Of course not. What we got instead was a sick liberal attack on "loyalty to one's own country, race or religion," which was described as "the darker side of human nature."

The truth is that as imperialists trying to subjugate another nation, the IRA are not true nationalists. As intergrationists and murderers of fellow Europeans, the IRA are not racialists. And as Marxists and terrorists, the IRA are not religious.

Does the Queen know this? If so, she was twisting the truth to make a political point against genuine nationalism, racialism and spirituality. Perhaps this is to be expected from the willing figurehead of a multi-racial capitalist cesspit. If not, her ignorance of political realities make her unfit to run a branch of the W.I., let alone be a head of state.

But does it really make any difference to Nationalists in Britain? Does anyone out there care what the monarchy thinks? Or will you be happy if boredom with this media-hyped soap opera and the multi-racial crankiness of the heir to the throne, finally persuades the peoples of Britain to separate this over-rated tourist attraction from any connection with the government of our long-suffering lands?

Your views will be received with great interest.

NURSES' VICTORY

Sad, because it is tragic that the deliberate underfunding of the NHS should make it necessary. Heartening, because at last the nurses have stood up for themselves – and for every patient – and won.

DEAR EDITOR

Green Books

Dear Sir,

It was good to see a quite wide variety of "green" books on offer in NFN 99. Both capitalism and communism seem unable or unwilling to tackle the environmental crisis: time for a Third Way!

There are two other other books in print that deal with alternative economic and social structures, which are worth a read.

The first is The Living Economy – A New Economics in the Making, edited by Paul Ekins and published by Routledge & Kegan Paul (ISBN 0-7102-0946-0). This book is a must simply for the sheer volume of information: not only does it question the idea of "growth" and the nature of work itself, but it deals also with the debt crisis, health, self-reliance, land, finance, taxation, co-operatives and multi-nationals.

Much of it is about local regeneration and how to keep created wealth in the community.

The other book is Schools of Tomorrow – Education as if People Matter by Richard North, published by Green Books (ISBN 1-870098-06-4). The author applies the "Small is Beautiful" principle to schools and cites real life examples.

Forward to a better Tomorrow – the Third Way!

Yours sincerely, G.K., Gosport, Hants.

Winner

Dear NFN,

The Race Campaign is a winner I'm sure, although it's turning a few heads down here. Some say that the NF has a "soft" approach. But the better news is that more people agree with this line. It clearly is a good one.

Yours sincerely,
D.H.,
Isle of Sheppy,
Kent.

Charity and Famine

Dear Editor,

"Let Charity begin at home."

At the end of the year, Sunday Times journalist Simon Jenkins wrote an interesting article on the Ethiopian famine relief craze. He looked at what has happened since Bandaid jolted us into giving £85 million in 1984/5.

The Mengistu regime in Addis Ababa seized power in 1974. Jenkins pointed out that it spends its foreign exchange on luxury goods for the Party bosses and on equipping one of Africa's largest armies. Rather than encouraging food supplies from the more prosperous south, the regime has ignored the famine in the rebellious north or has forcibly relocated peasant farmers from rebel areas, killing tens of thousands in the process.

He went on to talk of the negative effects of the relief programme: the food distorted the local economy; prices crashed and the ability of non-famine areas to produce was undermined; people were drawn away from their farms to the relief camps; they stopped trying to grow their own food. Worst of all, aid relieved the pressure on Mengistu to change his ways.
Mengistu wants to create a Marxist state with a centralized economy with all production under government control. Those caught storing or distributing food are liable to be shot. So Etheopian farmers no longer bother to produce surplus food.

The help Ethiopia most needs is the rejection of its Soviet advisors and an end to aid to the Communist regime. Many African countries are waking from a Marxist nightmare to realize that trade, a market economy and private capital are vital to economic progress. Foreign donors must ask themselves whether their aid really helps, or whether it merely prolongs the nightmare.

Meanwhile, what about the other charities? Could we not see TV pictures of tragedies closer to home; tragedies we can do something to cure; tragedies we do not aggravate by our generosity?

Despite what our critics say, NF supporters do have hearts and minds. But charity begins at home.

Yours faithfully,
D.S.,
Birmingham.

Editorial comment: We fully agree with this analysis of the terrible effects of Marxism and its role in the creation of famine (as in the Ukraine under Stalin). But the remedy for Africa is certainly not trade and a market economy of the sort favoured by the Sunday Times.

Virtually all the countries in the famine belt of Africa export more food than they import, and waste land which could feed all their people in order to export cash crops to the West. Why? Because it is the only way they can pay even the interest on fraudulent loans from the international banks. Capitalism as much as Communism is responsible for the repeated famines. Africa, even more than Europe, needs a Third Way – based on decentralized technology meeting local needs, and on the development of a sustainable economy based on the small farmer.

On the question of charity, the annual "cull" of British pensioners from hypothermia and hunger each winter makes any aid abroad revolting hypocrisy while this misery continues on our own doorsteps.

NATIONAL FRONT NEWS is Britain's only National Revolutionary newspaper. This makes it the only real alternative to the unholy alliance of capitalist media bosses and communist hack journalists which dominates the "British" press. If you want to read the truth about what is going on in Britain today, you'll only find it in NF News.

This is why capitalist newsagents chains refuse to stock it, and why Marxist thugs and the Tory-controlled police often try to stop NF News from being sold on the streets. So if you want to be sure of receiving Britain's only genuinely Nationalist newspaper every time it comes out, take out a subscription today.

BECOME A FRIEND OF THE MOVEMENT

YOUTH UNEMPLOYMENT is one of the most tragic and wasteful aspects of modern Britain. Hundreds of thousands of young people should be acquiring skills and helping to build a better nation. But instead they are forced to rot on the dole, often drifting into drugs or crime as a result.

The National Front seeks to give young people real hope for the future. Not just by offering a way to struggle for political change, but by giving advice on how to set up their own businesses and get to work for themselves.

WHERE WE STAND

NATIONAL FREEDOM

Britain is a Family of Nations – England, Wales, Scotland and Ulster – linked by blood and history. The peoples of all nations have an inalienable right to self-determination and to preserve their native culture and traditions.

RACIAL SEPARATION

Race is the main determining factor in nationality. Racially mixed societies cannot form one nation and are therefore unstable. No one race is "superior" to others, but they are all different. Racial integration threatens all races. Humane repatriation is better for us all than endless repression and racial violence.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

The nation is a great family. Every member of our national family has the absolute right to care at the nation's expense when young, sick or old. There must be equal opportunity for all, but unearned privilege for none.

WELL DISTRIBUTED PROPERTY

The realistic opportunity to own one's own home and place of work is the right of all our people. Direct ownership of the means of production and distribution is essential for individual freedom, for family stability and for the best use of our national resources.

SANITY IN FINANCE

The right to create the credit needed by the economy must belong to the people's government. The banks which have usurped this right must be stripped of their unjust gains and power. The National Debt is based on usury and must be repudiated.

RESPECT FOR NATURE

We hold the environment in trust for future generations. Pollution of the land, sea and air, and of the gene pool through radiation, is a betrayal of that trust.

DIRECT DEMOCRACY

Parliamentary representation is a fraud. Party rule is a cloak for the dictatorship of vested interests and media bosses. Government must be in the hands of the people themselves, through new information technology and the election of delegates to carry out their wishes. Power must be devolved to the lowest possible level

THE ARMED PEOPLE

The freedoms given by these principles must be defended through armed neutrality, with well-equipped national defence forces involving the entire adult population. Power, wealth and arms in the hands of the people!

REVOLUTION NOT REFORM

These changes cannot be brought about by tinkering within the System, or by relying on the System's own institutions, such as parliament, schools or the courts. They can only spring from a National Revolution. This revolution must begin in the hearts of individuals, then spread by their example to involve whole communities in revolutionary structures such as alternative councils and schools, neighbourhood patrols and self-help groups. Once we cease to depend on the institutions of the old State, it will be swept aside.

THE THIRD WAY

The growth of these ideas in nation after nation shows that a new force is rising in the world for the 21st Century. Leaving behind the sterile hatreds of Capitalism and Communism, this Third Way offers a real future for all our peoples. We urge all those who agree with these principles to join with us in the struggle to build the National Front – the Movement of the Future.

Yes! I'm prepared to back up the sacrifice of the NF's activists by doing something to change things for the better.

I wish to be registered as a Friend of the Movement for 1988. Please rush me my card and keep me informed of major developments within the National Front.

NF RACE CAMPAIGN

We're on the right track

THE IMPACT of the NF leaflet featuring Black separatist leader Louis Farrakhan with the slogan "He Speaks For His People, We Speak For Ours" has been so great that a fresh run of this item will be printed shortly.

The reissued leaflet will be slightly updated and improved, and it will give a further boost to the National Front's campaign to replace negative racial hatred with positive racial separatist values

One of the campaign's main aims is to encourage exchanges of ideas and even practical co-operation between NF activists and separatists of other races who are temporarily living in Britain. This is really beginning to have an effect in several areas. Most notable is the fact that hundreds of copies of the first two leaflets in the campaign have been distributed by Black Nationalist activists in the mainly West Indian Chapletown area of Leeds.

Breakthroughs in a number of other fields are also confirming that a significant and growing proportion of Britain's ethnic minority populations recognize that they were brought to our land to be exploited that they have no future here and that enforced multi-racism threatens their racial and cultural identities just as much as it does ours.

THE RESPONSE to a pledge by NFN Supporters in Oldham to raise funds for their town hospice suggests that their work in the nationwide positive Race campaign has begun to break down old prejudices.

The Labour former mayor, Alf Clarke, attacked the offer as a publicity stunt. Local Front official Alex Malcolm was quoted in the Oldham Advertizer saying that the NF has matured and that "we are not bigots or race haters."

He went on to acknowledge quite openly that he hoped for political benefits for the Nationalist cause from the action. "We are going into community politics to work at grass roots level to convince the people we will be right in years to come."

But in spite of this honest position, and the hate-filled reaction of the Labour man, the Chairman of the Oldham Hospice Appeal Fund, Mr Naru Hira, was quoted as saying: "If there is a body of people willing to raise money for a good cause, including the National Front, we would be quite willing to acknowledge them and thank them."

So an Asian is willing to accept our good faith, while a white neo-Marxist spits hatred. Further clear evidence that the National Front is on the right track in seeking to work with separatists of other races in a joint effort to end the multi-racial nightmare.

EXPANSION~A PRIORITY

MIDDLESBROUGH:— Towards the end of 1987 the Movement began to get organized for the first time in Middlesbrough on Teeside. There is now a dedicated hardcore of National Front News Supporters in the area who have already achieved publicity and support through their hard work. With the help of activists from throughout the North-East they will be established as a fully fledged unit of the Movement in the next few months.

The potential in the Cleveland area, which suffers one of the highest rates of unemployment in the British Isles, is massive. Despite the fact that most of the NFN Supporters in the area are unemployed, they are more than willing to make the financial commitment necessary to build the Movement.

As Tommy "B," an unemployed member told NF News: "I have met some people who say that while they support the National Front 100%, they think that £4 a month is too much to dig into their pockets for. And they're working! I just walk away from them. There is not much point in trying to convince someone who isn't prepared to miss a pint a week that they will make a worthwhile member of the National Front. We don't need them or that mentality."

But he did go on to add "but if I see them again I will try to persuade them to help by becoming "Friends of the Movement". Of course, I also realize that there are some people who cannot become NFN Supporters either because of their jobs or financial hardship. But there is no doubt in my mind that some people use the £4 a month as a 'cop out.' They should be ashamed of themselves."

The other lads in Middlesbrough are all in full agreement with this. With the dedication they are already showing, 'Boro should soon be a source of inspiration to the rest of the Movement.

As a result of this meeting, attended by a dozen young militants, it was decided that a new unit would be set up. Already, leafletting and paper selling have been started, with impressive results.

In many ways, Workington is a mirror image of Consett in the north east. Both towns have populations of around 30,000 and suffer from mass unemplyment due to the butchery of much of the area's heavy industry.

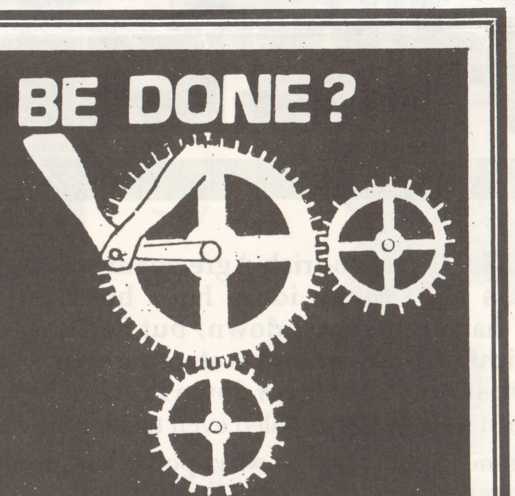
Colin was able to tell them about his experiences in Consett and gave them advice on how to counter opposition when it undoubtedly makes its typically reactionary knee jerk appearance. In conclusion he told the meeting:

"It never ceases to amaze me how many excellent people are now beginning to look towards the National Front and its Third Way ideology. All they need is help and advice to get themselves organized in areas where at present we have only scattered members. It is up to those who are already in units to make it a priority to set others up.

"There is no reason on earth why every unit now operating should not have another unit, or more, operating by the end of 1988. In 12 months we could double the organized strength of the Movement. Only then can we begin to live up to our name, the National Front."

The meeting ended with a collection. A committee was elected and it was decided that the first priority of the new unit must be to open a Post Office box as a local Contact Address.

WHAT IS TO BE DONE?



THIS COLUMN is specially designed to keep all NF officials well informed of forthcoming activities and to remind them of what needs to be done over the next two weeks.

All NF officials and activists must therefore make it a top priority to read this column carefully each issue, and then to act on the information.

* LOCAL ENQUIRIES. The names and addresses of members of the public who enquire direct to local PO Boxes, etc, should be passed on to central admin. after they have been contacted. This reverse version of the usual follow-up procedure will be used to extend the mailing lists for our operations. This must be done each lit. run.

* PUB NIGHTS. Informal gatherings of activists and supporters in pleasant and quiet pubs are easy to organize. They do not involve problems with booking a hall or laying on refreshments. And if everyone present pays 1 to "buy the paper a drink" they can raise decent sums for every NFN Supporters' Unit. Door-to-door regulars should also be encouraged to attend, if they can be involved socially it will deepen their commitment to the Movement.

The same is true of video nights in a member's home. Try to get a film with a cultural appeal — such as 'Excalibur' — one with a Nat. Rev. message — such as 'The Emerald Forest' — or one which will spark a useful discussion — such as 'Deathwish.' And get any budding writers to send in video reviews for future issues of NFN.

* LIBRARY LISTS. Write to your local chief librarian asking for the unit's PO Box and region's contact phone number to be put on the list of local political groups and other societies. Do not seek publicity over this.

* PUSH FOR F.O.M.s. All sellers must be briefed on how to invite regular paper buyers to sign up as FOM's. Some units make a practice of only allowing a new contact to come to three meetings unless they are prepared to become FOM's. This is quite in order if the majority of unit NFN Supporters agree to it.

FOMs not only provide vital income, but they are also the reservoir containing the next generation of organizers, treasurers and publicists. This group must be as large as possible, and must be constantly watched for people with potential.

Note that the minimum fee for FOMs is now £10 per year. No reductions for any category.

* TECH FUND DRIVE — Units must help. EVERY unit must help to improve our publicity machine by doing everything possible to raise block donations to the Technology Fund. Building a slick and efficiently produced paper is the key to building a well organized and efficient Movement. It is your duty to help.

* ANSWER PHONES. Regions still without their own must aim to install one within three months. Note that individual units within a region with one are not to duplicate this item. Every unit in a region must display the regional number prominently on all publicity material. Co-ordination makes our resources go much further.

ATTENTION ALL NFN SUPPORTERS!

NFN Supporters of more than one year's standing are reminded that they have from now until March 31st to apply to be accepted as Candidate Cadres. Eligible members who believe that they have the dedication and ability to be entrusted with the right to decide the future of the Movement, should apply at once.

The following two cadres support my application:

* CADRE EDUCATION. The thematic questions for each of the study books for cadres and candidates will be published in successive issues of NFN. These must be answered by individual study. Regional Political Officers will be given summarized answers, as well as advice on how to interview their candidates to check that they have grasped the key points.

1. Did Belloc see a difference between Communism and Capitalism? Elaborate.
2. How did Capitalism arise? Was it inevitable?
3. What was the 'third form' of society he proposed as an alternative?
4. What is the single most important thing required in order to re-establish widespread property?
5. What were Belloc's three main policy objectives?
6. Full economic freedom would require total self-sufficiency. What are the two limitations which make this impractical?
7. What are the advantages the large firm has over the small?
8. What is the main weapon Belloc would use to protect the small businessman against the large?
9. It was recognized that some enterprises are large either by nature or by greed. How could such enterprises be kept in check?
10. Did Belloc feel that the State had a role to play in his alternative society?

The development of ideological unity and the confidence to argue our case is absolutely vital if the cadre system is to work effectively. Without effort to that end by you the system could degenerate into no more than an expensive category of membership. The cadres must lead the Movement in every way. They must strive to become a beacon for all our peoples, indeed, for all of Europe.

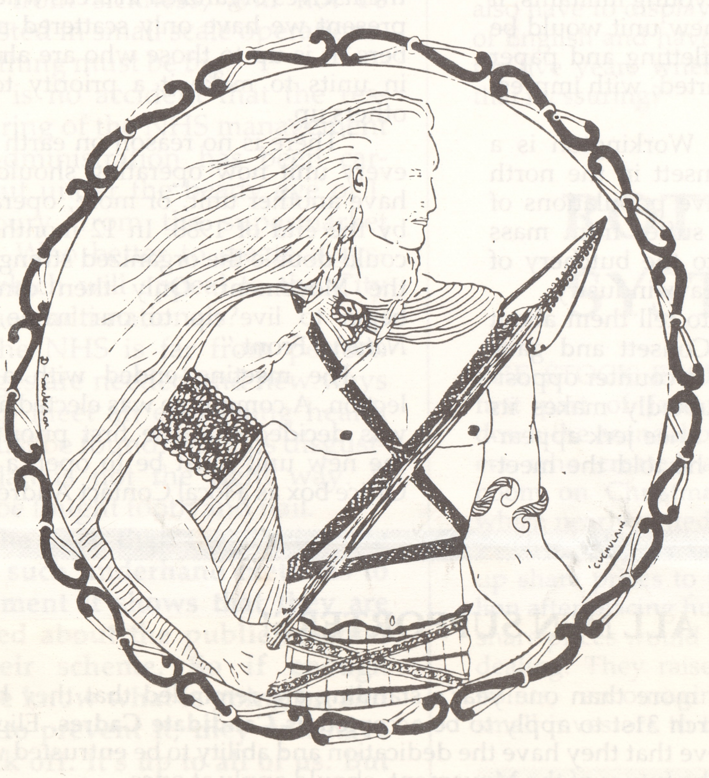
History, Identity, Culture



"The two communities in the north, however deeply divided by religion, share an outlook on life which is different from that prevailing in the south and which bears the stamp of a common heritage."
– E. Estyn Evans, The Personality of Ireland.

THE REBIRTH of cultural nationalism is an essential factor in the growth of political nationalism. Thus the quest to discover the true identity of Ulster must be welcomed by all Patriots.

Already, research has shown that Ulster has always been a separate and distinct Nation in its own right. Additionally, the people of Ulster are not wholly Irish as Republicans insist – nor are we exactly the same as the English or Welsh as Unionists would have it.

This research has dismayed those politicians who have filled Ulster's prisons and graveyards by wrongly distorting 'Orange' and 'Green' myths and legends.

Imperialism is one of the root causes of Ulster's misery. The rediscovery of our history, culture, language and identity will signal the beginning of the end for both Dublin and Westminster imperialism. A true folk revival will also shatter the centralist and materialist 'ideas' of reactionary Unionism and Marxist Republicanism.

NEW SERIES

To promote our true identity – and to put right many misconceptions – a new series in NF News will be examining Ulster's formative years, from pre-Christian times up until the 'Plantations.'

We will show that in Pagan times, the Celtic high kings who reigned at Ulster's ancient capital Emain Macha (Navan Fort) were frequently at war with their Southern neighbours. We will trace the many battles fought by the warrior knights of the Red Branch. And we'll highlight the role of Cu Chulainn who lived and died defending Uladh (Ulster) from the men of Ireland.

We will also show that the 'Scottish' planters who came to Ulster from Daldriada and Galloway were the descendants of the initial Celtic and Cruthinic inhabitants of Ulster who sailed to Scotland centuries before.

Any study of our past inevitably brings us to the future. If we are to throw off the shackles of the Anglo-Irish Agreement, Ulster must remember and reassert her ancient right to self-determination and Independence.

FIGHT FOR FREEDOM

THE IMPERIALIST Anglo-Irish Agreement was signed well over two years ago. Many ideas have been put forward which would have brought it down, but Paisley and Molyneaux have either hi-jacked and watered down these initiatives – or have simply shot them down in flames.

The Unionist 'leaders' have failed even to dent the Agreement. This should come as no surprise. The NF warned that the politicians would back down against Thatcher. And now Paisley and Moyneaux are content to hold "talks about talks" with the hated Tom King, and to circle like ageing vultures round the funerals of better men.

So where do we go from here?

First, we shouldn't bother to help the politicians out of the mess they've got themselves into. We shouldn't bother about these reactionary failures.

Second, we need to recognize that we can still mount effective political opposition to the Agreement. But if Ulster is to follow this political road we need to see why the Unionists have failed.

The main reason is that the DUP/OUP have no ideology to guide them. That's why Unionists only react to events. That's why, politically, Sinn Fein can tie them in knots. That's why Unionism has always lurched from one crisis to another.

BOLD AND PRINCIPLED

If Ulster is to survive, we need to develop an ideology which enables us to analyse both home and world affairs, the motive forces at work, and to plan a campaign accordingly. This campaign needs to be consistent, principled and bold.

Having identified why we need an ideology, we must underline what it should be. Our ideology must go beyond the worn-out centralist and materialist 'ideas' of Unionism and Republicanism. We need to promote a Third Way based on the ideal of "Ulster a Nation."

If Ulster is to survive, we must build on solid foundations and not shifting sands, A small, tightly-knit Movement consisting of militant idealists – fired by love and a positive vision of the future – will achieve more than a large grouping of moaners, cranks and gossips. Those who just sit in pubs moaning about "the Fenians" are worse than useless. So are football hooligans, glue sniffers, drunks, race-haters or sectarian bigots.

Counter-productive stunts organized by lunatic Unionist 'leaders' should be ignored and boycotted. What is there to gain by marching up and down hills at midnight? Or filling the coffers of the Irish government because a 'stunt' goes wrong?

We must follow a long-term struggle. Our actions must be disciplined, legitimate and constructive. We must act to promote political, cultural, economic and community initiatives. In short we must build the Ulster National Front.

Every reader must play their part in this present and final phase of Ulster's fight for freedom. Find out what YOU can do by writing to: 134 Templemore Avenue, Belfast, BT5 4FX. Or phone Belfast 56960.
